

Civitanova Marche

Civitanova is not only sea but also quality shopping, art and tradition. In fact you will have the opportunity to shop at low price thanks to a widespread presence of retail outlets of footwear, leather goods, wine, oil which go harmoniously with the surrounding area rich in interesting elements on an artistic, historical, cultural, environmental level. Moreover there are important abbeys, museums, theaters and beautiful old town centres. Particularly in Summer there are big events that attract large numbers of spectators; throughout the year instead, we have "Civitanova Danza", international festival in honour of Enrico Cecchetti, one of the most famous ballet master. Civitanova Marche is not only a seaside resort but also a center which can offer you many pleasant alternatives for those seeking a moment of tranquility and relax, different from the sea. In the city there are about 30 hectares of green spaces and garden area to spend your free time. For those who love sport the pedestrian trail, with its 3 km, is a viable alternative to jogging on the beach. It starts from C.so Umberto I° (the main street of the city) and runs along the green hills until Villa Conti (Civitanova

Alta). It links the sea to the hill and arrives until the medieval centre avoiding traffic, completely immersed in the nature. Once in Civitanova Alta you can visit the park of Villa Conti, with an
